CRIME & CASUALTY.

A Destructive Storm Sweeps Over Western Iowa and Eastern Nebraska.

Terrific Boiler Explosion at Philadelphia—Great Loss of Life.

TERRIFIC BOILER EXPLOSION.

Philadelphia, June 27.—An explosion of the boiler at Will's extensive planing mill at Front and Brown streets caused great consternation. The engine house and a portion of the mill were blown in all directions, the flying bricks and iron doing much damage. Several buildings in the vicinity are wrecked.

The dead body of the engineer has been taken from the ruins.

The boiler, by the force of the explosion, was driven into the second story of a dwelling occupied by a family named Long. A boy eight years old was killed, and his sister Stella, eleven years old, badly hurt. Their mother and Mrs. Ann McVey are missing, and are believed to be buried in the ruins.

SEVERE STORM.

Des Moines, Iowa, June 27.—Reports coming from central Iowa and eastern Nebraska show great damage done by Thursday night's storm to bridges, farm buildings and grain. The only loss of life reported is that of the wife and two daughters of B. McMaisters, near Stewart, Iowa. They were drowned by the overflow of Deer creek.

FIRE.

St. John, N. B., June 27.—The storehouse and outbuildings at Allen Bros' foundry at Carlton, burned today; loss about $40,000.

Columbus, O., June 27.—The Carlisle planing mill was destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. Loss, about $5,000; no insurance. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

CONVICTED OF MURDER.

Albany, N. Y., June 27.—William Latremville has been found guilty of the murder of Catharine Dunsbach near Cohoes on the 5th of April.

SUICIDE.

Columbus, O., June 27.—Fronck Beesmer, released from the lunatic asylum two weeks ago, committed suicide this morning by drowning in the Scioto River.

THE BODY FOUND.

Niagara Falls, June 27.—The body of Madame Rawland, drowned while visiting the Falls with her husband, while on her bridal tour, has been found.

SLIGHTLY SHORT.

Montreal, June 27.—J. W. Gesperance, clerk of the National Bank, is short in his cash $6,000.

DIED OF HEAT.

A number of cattle, en route for England, died in the cars, at the station here, from excessive heat.

PERJURY.

New York, June 27.—James Dempsey, now and for twenty years past editor at Staten Island, has been convicted of perjury and sentenced to the state prison for one year at hard labor. Dempsey presented to the county of Richmond a bill of $13.50 for expenses in holding an inquest and swore the bill was correct.

MURDERED HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW.

Atlanta, Ga., June 27.—In a family dispute, James Burton shot dead his brother-in-law, J. T. Ricks. Both are farmers.

DISAPPEARED.

New York, June 27.—Henry J. Buete, clerk in the Light House, at Staten Island, has disappeared, after forging Gen. Dwan's name, abstracting $200 from the safe and defrauding the State Islanders.

LABOR VERSUS CAPITAL.

The Great Strike at Fall River, Massachusetts.

Course of the Strikers—No Violence or Intimidation.

THE SITUATION.

Fall River, June 27.—The mills are all running this morning with the exception of the Narragansett, which shut down yesterday.

Some of the mills gained a few spinners to-day while others lost, but on the whole there have been gains of ten pairs of mules.

NO VIOLENCE.

There is no intimidation by violence but the manufacturers say that threats are made and a number of men at work yesterday are out to-day through fear of the strikers. Men who come here, have been returned home by the spinners. The depots are all watched and imported help is solicited to return.

THE EXTRA POLICE.

A committee of spinners waited on the mayor this morning, and asked that the extra police be withdrawn from the streets and kept at the stations, where they could be readily called in case of disturbance. The mayor said he would try to act as a disinterested party, but he would preserve order, and the extra police were put on to prevent a disturbance. The spinners would not be interfered with by the police if they preserved order.

WASHINGTON.

Congressional SENATE.

Washington, June 27.—Vest's resolution declaring in favor of free coinage and the remonetizing of silver was taken up. Kerman and Allison opposed and Vest and Maxey advocated the resolution.

Vest then offered the following substitute for his resolution:

Resolved, That the complete remonetization of silver and its restoration to perfect equality with gold, both as coin and bullion, are demanded alike by the dictates of justice, and wise statesmanship. The morning hour expiring, the resolution goes over until to-morrow.

The resolution providing additional pay for congressional employees was taken up.

The resolution passed as reported from the committee, with slight amendment.

Mr. Eaton reported from the committee on appropriations, without amendments, the judicial expenses appropriation bill passed yesterday by the house, which was then considered.

HOUSE.

During the morning hour, private business was dispensed with, and the house went into committee of the whole on the bill appropriating $300,000 to pay the fees of United States marshals and their general deputies. General debate on the bill was limited to one hour.

The debate was opened by Garfield in a lengthy argument.

Hurd responded in a brilliant and eloquent speech, which was received with much enthusiasm.

The house passed the bill by a party vote.

CABLEGRAMS.

GREAT BRITAIN.

AQUATIC.

London, June 27.—Hanson left New Castle yesterday and had an enthusiastic farewell. He thanked the people for their kindness and said he was ready to meet all comers to contest the cup.

Arriving in Manchester a tremendous crowd cheered Hanson loudly. In the evening he was presented with a diamond solitaire and made a suitable reply. The stage was decorated with British and American flags. The challenge cup and Hanson's boat were also displayed.

THE TURF.

Constantine won the Newcastle handicap.

A NASTY CASE.

The Schwartz Bastardy Trial Before Ryan.

A Remarkable Epistle from Mattie Clark.

The bastardy case of Mattie T. Clark vs. August L. Schwartz is on trial at Ryan's court to-day, and the testimony is very "juicy," and filthy a large crowd of scandal mongers is in attendance. Dr. Purman and other professional witnesses were examined and their evidence causes a doubt whether Mattie is really in the "interesting condition" she claims to be, although the testimony shows that she has had plenty of opportunities to become so.

The SENTINEL is in receipt of the following chaste epistle from the prosecuting witness:

Fri June the 27 79

Mr Editor Of the sentinel I wish to correct that statement in the sentinel of last night of my being in a box car with any one I will be glad to say that I have staid in Wors places then that with mr schwartz the sentinel refred to him being such A nice young man he is till you get him to the dark than he is as mean as enny of them as his date of divided my society at that time for it will only be tree weeks to night since I Was With him I wish to state that mr schwartz hrs come far short of being a gentleman in this case, as for us me being A prostitute which he tride to make apper in last night sentinel he has come far short of his perov.

MATTIE T. CLARK.

I wish to state also that my name is not in this place & that I have worked for as nice as folks as that are in Fort Wayne & that I do not live on harr st as I am staying there for a few days till the trial is over & that the folks are as nice A family as there are in fort Wayne I Wish to state to there nadors not look down on them on my A count for they now nothing of this till last night When the equire come down to summons A girl in part of the house.

MATTIE T. CLARK.

To-day's Arrests.

Ford Myers arrested a young tramp this morning, having in his possession a saw of which he could give no account.

Falkner and Diehl brought in a woman who was down among the boilers at Old Foundry this morning dead drunk. She had a dress in her possession which was afterwards learned to have been stolen from the residence of Mr. O'Coner on West Washington street.

Guthrie hauled in a bad drunk. All of the above posse can be found at the calaboose.

O. L. Perry did the Toledo races.

Mrs. W. W. Fisk, abhily esteemed lady died yesterday.

The condition of Mrs. D. H. Colerick is considerably improved.

Several refreshment privileges are yet for sale for July 4th, at the fair grounds.

Bernard Downey leaves for Notre Dame Monday, to educate himself for a brother.

John Robbins, ex-constable, to-day purchased the property of J. R. Bittinger, on West Washington street, for $1,950 cash.

All committees interested in the Fourth of July demonstration, are called to meet this evening at the county clerk's office.

Ed. Bashaliar, our new constable, to-day made his first arrest, it being Charles W. Emery, on a warrant for assault and battery on the person of Mary Moor, an employee at the Model Coffee House.

Some malicious anti-Americans are spreading the report that an admission fee will be charged July 4th. We pronounce it false. Every part of the fair grounds will be open to our citizens and visitors.

Miss Ida Mahurin's remains arrived from Auburn last night, and the funeral took place from the Wayne Street M. E. Church this afternoon.

The attendance was large and the services deeply impressive. The body was interred at Lindenwood.

Rosanna Hogan, daughter of the late Councilman Michael Hogan, of the sixth ward, and niece of Timothy Hogan, was buried from the cathedral yesterday. Her age was seven years and three months. The funeral was very largely attended.

The sale of privileges for the Fourth of July, took place at Swaney Park this morning. J. D. Olds and A. Dodge paid $100 for the grand stand seating privilege, and Dan Harmon $50 for the wheels of fortune. Other sales were made in proportion.

Metereological.

Washington, June 27.—Indications: For the Ohio valley, westerly winds, cloudy weather and numerous light rains, followed by slightly cooler clearing weather and stationary or higher pressure. For the lower lake region, southwest winds, possibly increasing to brisk or high winds falling barometer, cloudy weather and numerous local rains, possibly followed by lower temperature, clearing weather with high pressure.

Wirelings.

The Ohio democratic state convention has decided to formally open the campaign early in August with speeches by Pendleton, Thurman, Fretting, Steedman and others.

Chicago, June 27.—At one o'clock to-day, Greenland was twelve miles ahead of O'Leary.

FROM

DR. VON MOSCHISKER'S

Work on the Respiratory Organs.

Catarrh—Its Speedy and Permanent Cure.

I confidently assert that but one successful method of relieving and curing it has ever been discovered, and that is the one practised by me. Testimonials of hundreds of the severest cases cured by me are in my possession.

CATARRH AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.

At the commencement of the complaint the symptoms are those of an ordinary cold. The nose is stopped up. The edges are red and swollen, there is a frequent desire to sneeze, accompanied by a discharge of acid water, afterwards becoming thick yellowish, perhaps offensive matter. It escapes not only by the nose but passes into the throat, requiring frequent hawking, scraping and spitting for its removal, and few need to be reminded of the difficulty they have found in removing such a mass, when sticking, (as they often express it) at the back of the roof of the mouth, just where they cannot reach it. As the disease progresses, the watery portions of the discharge evaporate, and the parts are encrusted with tough green scabs or hardened lumps. One side of these green scabs is covered with grey pus, sometimes streaked with blood, or enclosing flakes of bone, which are thrown off by ulceration as the disease progresses. The breath has an excessively fetid and sickening odor, so offensive as to render the patient an object of disgust to himself, as well as others. It is terrible to what an extent the disease may progress. We have seen the bones of the nose entirely destroyed.

The nose may be filled, necessitating respiration through the mouth, causing the lungs to become weak and irritable, the voice to lose its power and musical quality, the sense of the smell becomes impaired, or entirely lost, while the sense of taste is more or less affected. Occasionally while blowing the nose, a creaking sound is heard in the ears, and hearing becomes thick or stopped up, but returns suddenly with something like a snapping sound. This may be repeated several times until hearing does not return but remains permanently injured. In other cases hearing is lost so gradually that a considerable degree of deafness may exist before the person is really aware of the fact. Either condition is often accompanied with noises in the head of every conceivable description, increasing the distress of the sufferer. The eyes are apt to become weak and irritable, and disposed to water on exposure to wind, or after slight exertion; pain more or less acute, or a feeling of pressure, is experienced over the eyes, on the top or back of the head, or in the face, memory is weakened, and the disposition rendered irritable and morose, the appetite is capricious and the stomach weak and irritable.

THE GENUINE DR. C. McLANE'S WORM SPECIFIC OR VERMIFUGE.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

THE countenance is pale and lead-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an acute semicircular runs along the lower eye-lid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; shiny or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; feeble pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times constipated, stools slimy, not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hiccup; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist, DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure.

IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant. The genuine DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrapper.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS

are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. As a simple purgative they are unequalled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated. Each box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

TUTT'S PILLS!

A NOTED DIVINE SAYS THEY ARE WORTH THEIR WEIGHT IN GOLD READ WHAT HE SAYS!

Dr. TUTT.—Dear Sir: For ten years I have been a martyr to Dyspepsia, Constipation and Piles. Last Spring your Pills were recommended to me. I used them (but with little faith) I am now a well man, have good appetite, digestion perfect, regular stools, piles gone, and I have gained forty pounds solid flesh. They are worth their weight in gold.

Rev. R. L. SIMPSON, Louisville, Ky.

A TORPID LIVER

Is the fruitful source of many diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Constipation, Dropsy, Bilious Fever, Ague and Fever, Jaundice, Piles, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Colic, &c. &c. Full Pills exert a powerful influence on the liver, and will cure any liver complaint, and prevent it from disease, and restore its normal functions.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. When the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one should be taken every night, gradually increasing the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is established, which will soon follow.

SCHOOL DAYS OVER

Commencement at the Academy of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart.

Excellent Rendition of a Varied and Interesting Programme.

Eloquent Remarks of Hon. R. C. Bell.—The Distribution of Prizes.

Rewards of Honor at the Brothers' School This Morning.

Yesterday a large concourse of people assembled at the Academy of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart to witness the commencement exercises which began at 10 o'clock a. m.

The academy grounds presented a lively and beautiful appearance. Greenwardens and bright flowers greeted the eye on every hand, and the scene was enlivened by the throng of visitors and groups of equipages scattered around.

Mother Araine and her efficient assistants, the good sisters, seemed ubiquitous and attended to the wants of the many visitors, and managed the exercises in a manner that showed them to be possessed of fine executive ability and made all feel at home and at ease at once. Many of our leading citizens and their families were present and everything seemed to combine to make the occasion an unusually pleasant one.

The hall was tastefully decorated with wreaths of flowers and presented a charming appearance.

The entertainment opened with a "Grand Entrance March," which was played in an excellent manner by Miss M. Hennessy on the piano and Misses Albert and Putnam on the harp.

The salutatory was delivered by Miss Jessie Bishop in a truly effective way, in the course of which she extended to all a cade meia fultia or a hundred thousand welcomes.

Miss Josephine A. Albert sang the solo, "Christine De Suede" very sweetly.

"Un Reve a Paris," a dialogue in French, participated in by Misses Wakeman, Putnam and Morrison, was very interesting and witty, judging from the close attention paid and occasional bursts of laughter that came from the French portion of the audience.

Miss Effie D. Putnam next rendered the harp solo, "Kathleen Mavourneen," in an excellent manner and received hearty applause.

The next on the programme was an essay, "Footprints," delivered by Miss Annette S. Wakeman, in which she referred in a pleasing way to the historical characters of England, France and Italy, and the examples they set for all mankind to follow. She closed by paying a glowing tribute to the character of Jesus Christ and calling attention to the everlasting and indestructible "footprints" left by Him on the "sands of time."

Miss Josephine A. Albert next gave an essay, "Le vni et le faux Honneur," in French, which, judging from the enthusiasm it produced, was very good.

An essay on "Belts" was next read by Miss Effie Putnam in a truly captivating manner and elicited the heartiest applause in the midst of which she was presented with a beautiful bouquet.

The rendition of the gallop de concert "Reine des Fees," on the piano by Misses Hatch and Cunningham was very good and well received.

The recitation, "Notre Dame," by Miss Jessie Bishop was well delivered and was very affecting as it referred to the recent burning of that institution.

Misses Albert, Hennessy and Putnam sang very sweetly the "Queen of Light and Beauty," and received unbounded applause.

The next on the programme was a drama in one act, arranged for the occasion, entitled "An Old Told Story," with the following cast:

THE GENUINE DR. C. McLANE'S Celebrated American WORM SPECIFIC OR VERMIFUGE.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

THE countenance is pale and leaden-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eyelid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times constive; stools slimy, not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hiccup; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist, DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure.

IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant.

The genuine DR. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrapper.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS

are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. As a simple purgative they are unequalled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated. Each box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

TUTT'S PILLS!

A NOTED DIVINE SAYS
THEY ARE WORTH THEIR WEIGHT IN GOLD
READ WHAT HE SAYS:

DR. TUTT:—Dear Sir: For ten years I have been a martyr to Dyspepsia, Constipation and Biliousness. Last spring your Pills were recommended to me. I used them (but with little faith). I am now a well man, have good appetite, digestion perfect, regular stools, piles gone, and I have gained forty pounds and feel fresh. They are worth their weight in gold.

REV. R. L. SIMPSON, Louisville, Ky.

is the fruitful source of many diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Dysentery, Bilious Fever, Ague and Fever, Jaundice, Piles, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Colic, &c. Tutt's Pills exert a powerful influence on the Liver, and will with certainty relieve that important organ from disease, and restore its normal functions.

The rapidity with which persons take on flesh, while under the influence of these pills, of itself indicates their adaptability to nourish the body, hence their efficacy in curing nervous debility, dyspepsia, wasting of the muscles, sluggishness of the liver, chronic constipation, and imparting health and strength to the system.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. When the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will be accomplished.

SCHOOL DAYS OVER

Commencement at the Academy of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart.

Excellent Rendition of a Varied and Interesting Programme.

Eloquent Remarks of Hon. R. C. Bell—The Distribution of Prizes.

Rewards of Honor at the Brothers' School This Morning.

Yesterday a large concourse of people assembled at the Academy of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart to witness the commencement exercises which began at 10 o'clock a. m.

The academy grounds presented a lively and beautiful appearance. Greenswards and bright flowers greeted the eye on every hand, and the scene was enlivened by the throng of visitors and groups of equipages scattered around.

Mother Arsine and her efficient assistants, the good sisters, seemed ubiquitous and attended to the wants of the many visitors, and managed the exercises in a manner that showed them to be possessed of fine executive ability and made all feel at home and at ease at once. Many of our leading citizens and their families were present and everything seemed to combine to make the occasion an unusually pleasant one.

The hall was tastefully decorated with wreaths of flowers and presented a charming appearance.

The entertainment opened with a "Grand Entrance March," which was played in an excellent manner by Miss M. Hennessey on the piano and Misses Albert and Putnam on the harp.

The salutatory was delivered by Miss Jessie Bishop in a truly effective way, in the course of which she extended to all a cade melia falsha or a hundred thousand welcomes.

Miss Josephine A. Albert sang the solo, "Christine De Suede" very sweetly.

"Un Reve a Paris," a dialogue in French, participated in by Misses Wakeman, Putnam and Morrison, was very interesting and witty, judging from the close attention paid and occasional bursts of laughter that came from the French portion of the audience.

Miss Effie D. Putnam next rendered the harp solo, "Kathleen Mavourneey," in an excellent manner and received hearty applause.

The next on the programme was an essay, "Footprints," delivered by Miss Annette S. Wakeman, in which she referred in a pleasing way to the historical characters of England, France and Italy, and the examples they set for all mankind to follow. She closed by paying a glowing tribute to the character of Jesus Christ and calling attention to the everlasting and indecipherable "footprints" left by Him on the "sands of time."

Miss Josephine A. Albert next gave an essay, "Le vrai et le faux honneur," in French, which, judging from the enthusiasm it produced, was very good.

An essay on "Bells" was next read by Miss Effie Putnam in a truly captivating manner and elicited the heartiest applause in the midst of which she was presented with a beautiful bouquet.

The rendition of the gallopade concert—"Reine des Fees," on the piano by Misses Hatch and Cunningham was very good and well received.

The recitation, "Notre Dame," by Miss Jessie Bishop was well delivered and was very affecting as it referred to the recent burning of that institution.

Misses Albert, Hennessey and Putnam sang very sweetly the "Queen of Light and Beauty," and received unbounded applause.

The next on the programme was a drama in one act, arranged for the occasion, entitled "An Old Told Story," with the following cast:

Conceitola.....Miss Effie D. Putnam
Fairy Godmother.....Miss Mary A. Hennessey
Prince.....Miss Ida M. Hatch
Herold.....Miss Annette S. Wakeman

Fairy Gwendolene.....Miss Mary R. McLoughlin
Fairy Everbright.....Miss Mary A. Farnin
Fairy May.....Miss May Morrison
Prologue.....Miss Josephine A. Albert

This little drama was presented in a manner which showed careful training and considerable histrionic ability upon the part of many that was highly creditable, the acting of Conceitola being especially good, and also that of Godmother, Prince and Herold.

An overture, "Merry Wives of Windsor," was performed on the piano by Misses Albert and Hennessey in an excellent manner.

In brief everything was well done. The essays and recitations were given in an easy, unembarrassed manner, and the musical part of the programme was highly enjoyable and evinced a great deal of embryo talent which time and cultivation will develop.

The premiums, which were distributed by Rev. Fathers Hartnett and Radamacher, were as follows:

First Class.....Miss Josephine A. Albert, city, 1st premium in Christian doctrine, French translation, modern history, rhetoric, reading, composition, penmanship, botany, vocal and instrumental music (harp and piano); 2nd in philosophy, grammar, algebra, bookkeeping and fancy work.

Miss Mary A. Hennessey, Notre Dame, Ind., 1st premium in rhetoric, grammar, composition, bookkeeping, thorough French, 2nd in Christian doctrine, arithmetic, vocal and instrumental music (Piano and guitar); 3rd in physiology, Latin, and English grammar, and penmanship.

Miss Helen M. Cunningham, Lafayette, Ind., 1st premium in Christian doctrine, etymology and algebra; 2nd in second class of French translation, 2nd in arithmetic, grammar, composition, reading and physiology, 2nd in second class of instrumental music, 3rd in penmanship.

Miss Mary C. McDonald, Fort Wayne, Ind., 1st premium in philosophy, etymology and reading; 2nd in grammar, United States history, modern history, geography, botany, composition and penmanship; 3rd in arithmetic, fancy work and (guitar) and French; 3d in grammar.

Miss Emma D. Putnam, Flint, Mich., 1st premium in instrumental music, harp; 2nd in Christian doctrine, composition and French; 3d in grammar.

Miss Annette S. Wakeman, Mendon, Mich., 1st premium in physiology, modern history, botany and etymology; 1st in second class of rhetoric and French grammar; 2nd in composition and reading; 3rd in English grammar and penmanship.

Miss Anna K. Morrison, of Sturgis, Mich., 1st premium in United States history, geography and etymology; 1st in first class of French grammar and penmanship; 2nd in grammar and fancy work; 3d in reading and instrumental music; 4th in composition.

Miss Mary C. McDonald, city, 1st premium in Bible history; 2nd in arithmetic, United States history, geography and reading; 3rd in grammar, etymology and penmanship.

Miss Mary R. McLoughlin, Sturgis, Mich., 1st premium in French grammar, geography and grammar; 1st in second class of French; 2d in Christian doctrine, etymology and fancy work; 3d in third class of music; 3d in composition.

Miss Jessie Bishop, of Sturgis, Mich., 1st premium in United States history, geography, grammar, etymology and reading; 2d in French; 3d in penmanship, composition, fancy work and instrumental music.

Miss Ida M. Hatch, of Grand Rapids, Mich., 1st premium in fancy work and letter writing; 2d in reading and penmanship; 3d in physiology, grammar, etymology, French; 3d in second class of instrumental music; 3d in United States history; 3d in penmanship and fancy work.

Miss Orella I. Lent, Waterloo, Ind., 1st premium in grammar, 2nd in arithmetic, reading and penmanship; 3rd in United States history, geography and fancy work.

Miss Mary E. Schneller, New Haven, Ind., 1st premium in grammar and reading; 2nd in arithmetic, reading and fancy work; 3rd in penmanship and second class of instrumental music.

Miss Mary E. Crawford, Morton, Grove, Tex., 1st premium in orthography, 2nd in grammar and reading; 3rd in penmanship and 4th in plain sewing.

Miss Adeline Urbine, Academic, Ind., 1st premium in catechism, arithmetic, grammar and orthography.

Miss Mary A. Farnin, city, 1st premium in grammar and orthography, 2nd in catechism, arithmetic, geography, reading and penmanship; 3rd in fancy work; 4th in United States history, geography and fancy work.

Miss May Morrison, Sturgis, Mich., 1st premium in reading, geography and orthography and second in grammar.

Crowns of honor for conduct and amiable deportment were awarded to the following young ladies: Miss Josephine A. Albert, Miss Ida M. Hatch and Miss Mary A. Farnin.

First honors were awarded to Misses Wakeman, Foster, Hennessey, McLoughlin, Bishop and Schneller.

Second honors to Misses Morrison and McClure.

The following young ladies received honorable mention for correct and amiable deportment, but not having been in first class, did not receive crowns of honor: Misses Putnam, Lent, Sterlin and Urbine.

HON. R. C. BELL'S REMARKS.

The Hon. R. C. Bell was then introduced by Father Hartnett, and the following is a brief synopsis of his remarks, which were well received:

I have been requested to submit a few remarks upon this occasion. This I appreciate as an honor, and I gladly comply with the request. It would, however, under the circumstances, be highly inappropriate for me to detain you with any extended remarks. It is highly gratifying to all who are interested in education, who have at heart the well-being of mankind and the progress of society, to witness such scenes as have presented themselves here to-day. No one so situated can fail to feel a deep interest in the institutions of learning like this. Their influence is deep and wide-spread, and is not circumscribed by their walls, nor does it cease to be felt with the progress of time. It will continue to increase and to be felt. Early influences and training, unconsciously perhaps, but none the less, form the mould and shape and control the entire after-life. Hence the importance of surrounding youth with good influences. That nation and people which has given most attention to the education of its young has ever in the past, and ever will in the future, stand in the vanguard of civilization and progress.

Fortunate indeed are those whose privilege it has been to drink from the fountain that springs up here.

For the opportunities furnished and advantages enjoyed by the pupils here I feel sure they are grateful. That these advantages and opportunities have been improved by them, no one who has witnessed the exercises here to-day can doubt. They bear witness not only to their intelligence and diligence, but also in a still higher degree to the faithfulness and efficiency of the good Sisters who have had the care and charge of the conduct, training and instruction of these pupils. To them must come at this time the pleasing consciousness of duty done and the conviction that they have sown good seed which has sprung up and will, in due time, bring forth more than an hundred fold. They with us have witnessed to-day but the bursting bud which surely presages the coming of the fragrance of the full flower and the rich burden of the ripe fruit.

Valuable as are the results reached here, they are still chiefly valuable for what they promise in the future. In institutions like this the foundations of character are laid strong and deep for the grand superstructure, beautiful, stately, symmetrical and complete, which, by the labors and cares, joys and sorrows, trials and experience of after life, will be reared thereupon. Here are implanted those germs of education which, warmed by the desire for knowledge, pressed forward and upward by habits of scholarly diligence and industry, will spring up a soil of moral culture, will strengthen, broaden and increase in strength, breadth and beauty until they shall form not only an honor to their possessors but a blessing to mankind—valuable additions to the grand total of the sum of human happiness, culture, worth and progress.

Sight is often lost of the fact that education by no means consists in mere book learning. That, in fact, constitutes but a small part of a broad and true education, which does not stop, but only has begun with the close of school life. We, who have passed further along, need not be seriously concerned that we find ourselves forgetting "Greek roots" or "Latin idioms," or unable to state equations or to recall or repeat theorems or propositions in mathematics. It should be enough for us to know that we have once marched over the field conquering all that we met. In so doing each mental effort prepares and fits the student to make each succeeding effort more powerful and efficient than the one which preceded it. One grand aim of study is to render one the complete master of his own mental powers. Education, however, in its broadest, best and most catholic sense comprises far more than this, and comes from other sources as well as this. It comprises character and culture as well as training and attainments. It elevates, strengthens and improves in all that is good and desirable. It brings its possessor up to the full measure, stature and standard of true manhood and true womanhood and more nearly to the likeness and image of Him who was the Great Teacher, and to Him who is the source of all knowledge.

To the friends gathered here let me say: Continue to lend a helping hand to this institution of learning and culture. Give it your sympathy, encouragement and support. It deserves and will repay it all. To the good sisters who have it directly in charge, let me express my thanks and appreciation for the evidences of their good work in our midst, and in doing so to say that I feel sure that I may speak for all present. Your true reward and full payment will surely come with the results that must and will crown your efforts. To the pupils I would say: Press on in the good work here begun; embody in your lives and actions the habits here formed and precepts here taught. Bear in mind also, that great excellence comes only with great labor. I shall never forget an injunction given by a favorite college professor of mine to a class of which I was a member, upon an occasion similar to this, and which I feel like repeating now, when he said: "Young gentlemen, work, work, work. There will be time enough to rest when you're dead."

I am convinced, from what I have witnessed here to-day, that you have already nerved yourselves to study and labor. Preserve these habits. They will carry you on to the desired goal, and amply repay you for all your exertions.

NOTES.

A bounteous lunch was spread for all the guests, which was dispatched with evident gusto. Several Fort Wayne gentlemen distinguished themselves in the role of waiters.

One room was filled with articles of fancy work done by the pupils, and consisted of embroidered chairs, foot-rests, toilet cushions, tidies, lambrequins, glove boxes, etc., all beautifully executed.

On the whole, the exercises were highly creditable and evidently much enjoyed by all in attendance.

The good work being done by this school cannot be over-estimated.

THE BROTHERS' SCHOOL.

This morning exercises opened at the brothers' school, on the corner of Jefferson and Clinton streets, and diplomas for commercial studies were given to the following: Frank J. Woulfe, Louis Gocke, Dennis McCarthy, Wm. Leonard, Wm. Duffy and John Kelly.

Premiums of honor were awarded to the following: First class, Chas. Hedekin; second, Henry Hayes; third, Eugene Sullivan; fourth, John McArthur; fifth, Edward Hedekin.

Next Sunday afternoon a gold cross will be given for the prize essay. The contest stands between Charles MacDougal and Francis S. Woulfe.

In the fifth class the premium of honor was to be awarded between George Graff and Edward Hedekin. After considerable drawing it was awarded to George Graff, but young Hedekin, seeing that he had lost the prize, began to cry. When Graff saw this he said, "give it to him the baby," which produced some laughter.

The bishop then gave the pupils instruction regarding their duties during vacation, then followed his blessing and school adjourned.

HOW TO BE BEAUTIFUL.

Many hundred thousand dollars are annually expended by ladies for "artificial" appliances to hide the shrunken and wasted form, or the sallow skin, blotches or liver spots, which are due to female weakness, dyspepsia, torpid liver and constipation. If a small percent of this sum were invested in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, ladies would really be what they now seem to be. It readily corrects those weaknesses and diseases upon which debility and emaciation depend. It cures dyspepsia by toning up the system, and when used in connection with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, speedily overcomes all irregularities of the liver and bowels. No "blooming of youth," no "beautifier of the complexion," can impart such permanent beauty of face and form as Dr. Pierce's health-giving Favorite Prescription.

Free of Cost.

DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY for consumption, coughs and cold, asthma, bronchitis, etc., is given away in trial bottles free of cost, the afflicted.

If you have a severe cough, cold, difficulty of breathing, hoarseness or cough of the throat or lungs, by all means give this wonderful remedy a trial. As you value your existence you can not afford to let this opportunity pass. We could not afford and would not give this remedy away unless we knew it would accomplish what we claim for it. Thousands of hopeless cases have already been completely cured by it. There is no medicine in the world that will cure one-half the cases that Dr. King's New Discovery will cure. For sale by Dreier & Bro., Fort Wayne.

Questions and Answers.

Question—How is gold like clarity?

A.—Because it "covers a multitude
of sins."

Q.—Does gold render people deaf,
dumb and blind, and how?

A.—Yes; it makes them deaf to the whisperings of conscience as well as to the cry of misery; dumb when they should hear true testimony; and blind
to vice and crime no less than to scenes of destitution. Solid silver
and silver-plated ware, all plated

SCENES AT POLICE COURT.

Darius Allen, the Temperance Re-
former, as a Lemon
Squeezer.

A Trial of Tramps Who Were
Snatched Out of a Box Car.

At precisely 9 o'clock this morning
Justice Ryan ascended the throne and frowned with startling severity upon
the parties before the bar.

"Young man, what have you to say
concerning the charge here laid before
me?" thundered the judge to a modest
young man at his right.

"Why, your honor—"

"There, that'll do. Two years on the stone pile. Next!"

Marshal Diehl arose and said:

"Your honor, there seems to be some mistake here. That young man, if your honor please, is not a prisoner.
He is Mr. Beshalier, City Attorney
Colerick's deputy. He has come here to prosecute these cases. Those are the prisoners."

"Oh, he is, eh! Well as it is the first time I will let him go, but don't let this occur again."

The first bonaparte subject was Darius Allen, the great temperance lecturer, of whom a notice is given elsewhere. Darius was pretty well torn
up. He appropriated some lemons at the Yankee Grocery yesterday, doubtless to make some lemonade to carry
on his great work of temperance reform. The cruel proprietors heartlessly set down on that way of doing business, and the great Darius languished
in the cooler last night. Mr. Allen, be it known, advises that he is
"Coming, coming, coming with 20,000
names to the oath-bound pledge," to lecture on "Whisky and Hell," or
"Down Among the Dead Men," etc.
Mr. Allen can add his name to the list and that will make an enormous total of 20,001 names, and can appropriately change the title of his lecture to "Whisky and Lemons," or "One Night in the Fort Wayne Stinkery." Mr. Allen
was requested to leave town before 11 o'clock. A hasty glance at the clock convinced him that he had time
enough, and he sailed out of court
with tears in his eyes.

Next were Ed. Doyle, Ned Hamlin
and Pat Smith, who unanimously
agreed that the charge of being vagrants was a mistake "entirely."

They were horny-handed sons of toil, who did not know that it was a mortal sin to sleep in
a box car, when there were hundreds of men in Fort Wayne who had lodgings to rent. Officer Beshalier gathered them in. The judge thought that one hour was plenty long enough
for them to get out of the city. They thought they could make it, and at the gate they marched south from the city hall they probably had plenty of time to spare.

The SENTINEL was honored this morning with a pleasant call from Lieut. Frank French, of this city,
who recently graduated at the West
Point Military Academy with high
honors, standing twelfth in a class of 66. Lieut. French will remain here until about the first of October when he expects to go on active duty. He will enter an infantry regiment and expects an assignment from Washington daily. It is safe to predict for
Mr. French a brilliant and useful career in the army.

The Huntington Herald says the Pern Sentinel pines for a fireman's tournament or anything else, and the Fort Wayne SENTINEL very properly
advises the people of that slow and solemn burg to load up their old town
and take it to Fort Wayne, where they will be shown something bigger than they ever saw before. At another place it says: "The people of Fort Wayne are making extensive preparations for a regular old-fashioned 4th
of July celebration. As usual they will have Peter Kiser and his scrap-
book on exhibition."

SALEM CHURCH PIONIC.

The excursion to Rome City on Tuesday was under the joint auspices of Salem German Reformed Church and the English Lutheran church. The former society had two coaches, containing 151 passengers, and the latter carried 62 passengers in one coach.
The Salem Church people informed a SENTINEL reporter that their picnic was a most enjoyable one in every respect; one of the interesting features was the music on the lake, rendered in the evening by the Harmonia Choir, under the direction of J. C. Webber.
Salem church expect to go to Rome
City soon again.

HARMONIA MAENNERCHOR.

The Harmonia Maennerchor went up to Rome City yesterday, 125 strong, caught several thousand fish, rowed on the lake, punished a few tons of provisions, made some capital music and had a good time generally. The party returned last night well pleased with the manner in which they had passed the day.

Questions and Answers.
Question—How is gold like charity?
A.—Because it "covers a multitude
of sins."

Q.—Does gold render people deaf,
dumb and blind, and how?
A.—Yes; it makes them deaf to the
whisperings of conscience as well as to
the cry of misery; dumb when they
should hear true testimony; and blind
to vice and crime no less than to scenes of destitution. Solid silver
and silver-plated ware, all plated
ware, triple plated castors, card stands, knives, spoons and forks; 6 pieces of tea ware, $40;
tea and dinner set, of China; 106 pieces of good crockery, only $10; students' lamps. Everything 20 percent cheaper, for cash, than any other house.

Place.

A. Foster, the old established and popular merchant tailor has removed his parlors from No. 21 Calhoun street to No. 82 Calhoun street, in Mill's block, where he has fitted up a very handsome saleroom. His floor is neatly carpeted, and his room is arranged in a most inviting way in every respect. There is a good light, making it a splendid place to show goods and to make selections. Mr.
Foster has a splendid assortment of goods in stock, and he is better prepared than ever to satisfy his many friends and patrons. He still holds the position of the Best Cutter and Leading Fashionable Merchant Tailor in the city.
His prices are reasonable, his goods first class and he always warrants a fit. Don't fail to call at his new place, No. 82 Calhoun street. 61712

Louis Fortreide has removed his place of business from 32 West Main can be found at all hours of the day and night. Prices in keeping with the times. 5-143m.

This will be ladies' night at the Olympic. No smoking, etc., and the Black Crook will be presented in fine style. Some of the leading ladies in the city will attend.

SCENES AT POLICE COURT.

Darius Allen, the Temperance Re-
former, as a Lemon
Squeezer.

A Trio of Tramps Who Were
Snatched Out of a Box Car.

At precisely 9 o'clock this morning
Justice Ryan ascended the throne and
frowned with startling severity upon
the parties before the bar.

"Young man, what have you to say
concerning the charge here laid before
me?" thundered the judge to a modest
young man at his right.

"Why, your honor—"

"There, that'll do. Two years on the stone pile. Next!"

Marshal Diehl arose and said:
"Your honor, there seems to be some mistake here. That young man, if your honor pleases, is not a prisoner.
He is Mr. Bashaliar, City Attorney
Colerick's deputy. He has come here
to prosecute these cases. Those are
the prisoners."

"Oh, he is, eh? Well as it is the
let this occur again."

The first bona fide subject was Darius
Allen, the great temperance lecturer, of whom a notice is given elsewhere. Darius was pretty well torn
up. He appropriated some lemons at
the Yankee Grocery yesterday, doubt-
less to make some lemonade to carry
on his great work of temperance reform. The cruel proprietors heartlessly
sat down on that way of doing business, and the great Darius languished
in the cooler last night. Mr. Allen, be it known, advertises that he is
"Coming, coming, coming with 20,000
names to the oath bound pledge," to
lecture on "Whisky and Hell," or
"Down Among the Dead Men," etc.

Mr. Allen can add his name to the
list and that will make an enormous
total of 20,001 names, and can apparently change the title of his lecture to "Whisky and Lemons," or
"One Night in the Fort Wayne Stinkery." Mr. Allen
was requested to leave town before 11 o'clock. A hasty glance at the clock convinced him that he had time
enough, and he sailed out of court
with tears in his eyes.

Next were Ed. Doyle, Ned Hamlin
and Pat Smith, who unanimously
agreed that the charge of being vag-
rants was a mistake "entirely."

They were horny-handed sons of toil, who did not know that it was
a mortal sin to sleep in
a box car, when there were hundreds
of men in Fort Wayne who had lodgings to rent. Officer Fahlsing gathered them in. The judge thought
that one hour was plenty long enough
for them to get out of the city. They thought they could make it, and at
the gate they marched south from the city hall they probably had plenty of
time to spare.

have gotten up some handsome views of Fort Wayne, looking from the south end of the city.

Plymouth Congregational Church reports that "it joins heartily in the proposal for an old fashioned celebration of our national holiday." Let others do likewise.

Huntington Herald: Miss Belle McDonald, of Fort Wayne, an amiable and accomplished young lady and a very fine singer, spent Sabbath last in this city with her friends, the Misses Moore.

Why is the Olympic Theatre like a game of chess? Because it has a black-book on the boards. One of the boys in the news room perpetrated the above. His family will wear mourning for thirty days.

Darius Allen, the champion of temperance who was perambulating the streets of our city last Tuesday, was just tapering off from a terrific drunk which he had indulged in at Auburn.
Owing to the fact that he couldn't stand up he did not lecture in Auburn on Monday night, as advertised.

The SENTINEL was honored this
morning with a pleasant call from Lieut. Frank French, of this city,
who recently graduated at the West
Point Military Academy with high
honors, standing twelfth in a class of 66. Lieut. French will remain here
until about the first of October when
he expects to go on active duty. He will enter an infantry regiment and
expects an assignment from Washington daily. It is safe to predict for
Mr. French a brilliant and useful career in the army.

The Huntington Herald says the Peru Sentinel pines for a firemen's tournament or anything else, and the
Fort Wayne SENTINEL very properly
advises the people of that slow and
solemn burg to load up their old town
and take it to Fort Wayne, where they will be shown something higher than they ever saw before. At another
place it says: "The people of Fort Wayne are making extensive preparations for a regular old-fashioned 4th
of July celebration. As usual they will have Peter Kiser and his scrap-
book on exhibition."

THE RAILROADS.

Freight business on the Pittsburgh road is so brisk that passenger engines are frequently sent out with freight trains.

Another switch track is being laid by the Grand Rapids & Indiana railroad Company at their depot in Grand Rapids.

The second section of No. 3 on the Pittsburgh, last night, consisted of ten cars, containing 356 emigrants for the northwest.

The Pittsburgh road is now carrying about two-thirds of all the stock taken out of Chicago. They had 128 cars to-day.

WHERE IS SHE?

Strange Disappearance of a Little Deaf Mute at the South Depot.

Yesterday afternoon a deaf mute, a little girl aged about twelve, the daughter of C. Holder, of LaGrange, was put off the Wabash train from Indianapolis at the south depot. Geo.
P. Gordon, the baggage agent of the Pittsburgh, was requested to place her in care of the conductor of the G. R. & I. train, who in turn was to put her off at LaGrange.
Gordon being very busy at the time, took her into the waiting room and told her to stay there and he would take care of her when the train came.
When the train did come Mr. Gordon went to get his charge but she was no where to be found, nor has anything been heard of her up to this writing.
It is not known whether she strayed from the depot or whether she boarded some other train.

A Lively Runaway.

This morning, at about 9 o'clock, a farmer named Christian Felker, living about seven miles south of this city, on the Winchester road, was driving leisurely along on Griffith street and drinking in the beautiful scenery thereabouts, when his horses not having any guiding hand, walked off a culvert. Their departure frightened them and they started off on a run,
going northward on Griffith street, entirely beyond control of the farmer. At the corner of Griffith and Jefferson streets they ran upon the pavement, bringing the wagon squarely over the curb, which is about fifteen inches high. The sudden shock completely collapsed the wagon and threw Mr. Felker out upon the pavement spraining his knee and bruising his legs slightly. There were no serious injuries excepting to the wagon and its load which consisted of oats, which were judiciously distributed about that vicinity on the Moses Lane plan.

NOTICE.

The Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, together with the Clerk and Assessor thereof, will act as a board of equalization, on the 16th day of July 1879,
at the Council Chambers in the City Hall
of said city, to hear and determine complaints in relation to the assessment of property lying within the limits of said city, and within the same as right and justice may require. Said board of equalization will continue in session from day to day until the 20th day of July 1879; after which time no complaint in relation to assessments will be heard.

By order of the Common Council.
Attest: JOHN H. TRENTMAN,
City Clerk.
